

Extraterrestrial Aliens and Reptilian Gods in the Quran, Pt VIII

by Amir Fatir

WHEN GODS RULED THE EARTH

The Egyptian list covers incredibly long periods when the gods ruled earth, followed by demigods, followed by the so-called dynasties. The categorization, 1st, 18th, 21st, etc. dynasty is a modern invention of Western scholars. The original beings from which the Biblical David and Soloman derive could go back to the dynasties of the gods or demigods. Recent research shows that the Sphinx and Giza pyramids are at least 12,000 years old. Water levels show erosion from the time before that area was desert land.

Interestingly, the Hebrews supposedly wandered in "the wilderness" (not the desert) after they supposedly left Egypt. That suggests that the Exodus, if it occurred at all, occurred before the once wilderness became desert.

Oddly, neither the Bible nor Quran mentions pyramids. If the Hebrews were in Egypt in relatively recent times they would undoubtedly have written about the pyramids. The Israelites are not the only people claiming exile from Egypt. The Yoruba of Nigeria say they were run out of Egypt long before the supposed Hebrew exile.

The Book of Revelation mentions Egypt as the place Jesus was crucified. What gives? What if the historical person we know as Jesus Christ was actually an Egyptian god. The parallels between Jesus and Horus are

And certainly We gave David abundance from Us. "O mountains repeat praises with him, and the birds," and We made the iron pliant to him.

Saying; Make ample (coats of mail), and assign A time to the making of coats of mail and work Well. Surely, I am a Seer of what you do.

And (We made) the wind (subsequent) to Solomon; it made a month's journey in the evening; and We made a fountain of molten brass to flow for him. And of the Jinn there were

Those who worked before him by the Command of his Lord. And whoever turned aside from Our command from among them, We made him taste of the chastisement of burning.

They made for him what he willed, of temples and images, and bowls (large) as watering-troughs and fixed cooking pots.

"Work you sons of David!" And very few of my slaves are grateful.

But when We decreed death for him, naught showed them his death but a creature of the Earth that ate away his staff. So when he fell down the Jinn saw clearly that, if they had known the hidden (knowledge), they would not have tarried in humiliating torment. Quran 34: 10-14

The Jinn performed "humiliating" work against their will and were "slaves" to a stronger being many, both in their deeds and teachings. They both were born of virgins, died and were resurrected, walked on water, challenged Set (Satan), rose to heaven and were Kings whose right to kingship was in dispute. Horus (Heru, "The Light") is accused of being of illegitimate birth as was Jesus. Horus' grandfather was Tehuti, the Egyptian Holy Spirit. Jesus' Father is also said to have been "the Holy Ghost."

Jesus was called a son (descendant) of David. If David (DWD/TWT) is a type of Tehuti, then the parallel continues since Horus was the grandson of Tehuti on his mother Isis' side. Tehuti was the god King over Egypt until he was dethroned by Ra, If Tehuti is the god upon which the Biblical and Quranic Dawud (David) is derived then David and Solomon's subjugation of the Anunnaki (Jinn) makes sense.

Tehuti is the god of magic, astronomy, science, music, language, scriptures, diplomacy, mathematics, building, medicine, wisdom and judicial affairs. David was supposedly a master musician, singer, zoologist, botanist and author of scripture (Zabur or Psalms).

The Quran calls David's scripture the Zabur. It comes from Sippur (Arabic has no letter "p") or "Bird City," the ancient site of the Anunnaki space center. Thus the Zabur refers to knowledge from "above" i.e. outer space.

(Allah). Solomon forced them to work, tortured those who rebelled, and subjected them to burning as a form of punishment.

They had such fear of Solomon that they continued to work even after his death until his dead body fell off the throne.

And certainly We tried Solomon, and We put a body on his throne, so he turned.

He Said: "My Lord, forgive me and grant me A Kingdom which is not fit for anyone after me. Surely You are the Great Giver. so We made the wind subservient to him.

It made his command to run gently whenever he desired. and the Shayateen (devils) every builder and diver. and others fettered in chains. This is Our free gift, so give freely or withhold, without reckoning.

Excellent resort.

38: 34-40

Solomon's "nearness to Us" indicates a genetic relationship with the top Anunnaki. The original Kings were required to be either "gods" or half-gods, or as with Gilgamesh, "two-thirds divine."
